

Financial Certification Form for Online Degree Programs that Require On-Campus Residencies

It is each F-1 applicant’s responsibility to demonstrate sufficient funding for all academic and living expenses during his/her entire course of study/on-campus residency at Regent University in the United States. In order to obtain an I-20 (Certificate of Eligibility for Nonimmigrant (F-1) Student Status), which is required for the F-1 student immigration status/visas; the applicants must submit documentary evidence of financial support for the entire period of their residency in the United States.

Financial Estimates for On-Campus Residencies

A. Determining the Total Estimated Cost for Your Particular Residency

Use the details below to determine the total estimated cost for your particular residency. You will need to know the estimated cost for your program in order to complete the Financial Certification Form on the next pages. Once you locate the “TOTAL ESTIMATED COST” for your residency program, you will need to list it in Section F.
